

Formal Notice

Transfer of a portion of the Insurance Business of Hollard Specialist Insurance Limited to Centriq Insurance Company Limited

(In terms of Section 50 of the Insurance Act 18 of 2017)

Notice is hereby given that Hollard Specialist Insurance Limited (registration number 1966/007612/06) intends to transfer a portion of its insurance business to Centriq Insurance Company Limited (registration number 1998/007558/06) ("Centriq") in terms of section 50 of the Insurance Act 18 of 2017 ("the Act") ("the Proposed Transfer").

The policies affected by the Proposed Transfer are value-added non-life policies underwritten by Hollard and distributed and administered by M-Sure Financial Services Proprietary Limited (registration number 2002/022941/07) ("M-Sure") (the "Transfer Policies").

The Transfer Policies will be transferred to Centriq in terms of a transfer of business agreement concluded between Hollard and Centriq ("the Agreement").

As the Proposed Transfer involves the transfer of policies without the individual consent of policyholders, a regulatory approval process is required in terms of the Act, including approval by the Prudential Authority. Upon approval of the Proposed Transfer, Centriq will assume all rights and obligations of Hollard in respect of the Transfer Policies.

Copies of the Agreement and other relevant documents will be available for inspection during the period from 1st of October 2026 to 31st of October 2026 ("the Inspection Period") on the following websites:

- www.hollard.co.za
- www.centriq.co.za
- www.m-sure.co.za

Any interested person may, within the Inspection Period, submit written representations regarding the Proposed Transfer to the Prudential Authority. Representations must be received by no later than 31st of October 2026.
